A person with long reddish-brown hair, wearing a light-colored long-sleeved shirt, is sitting at a wooden desk and typing on a laptop. In the foreground, a gold-colored smartphone is resting on a grey and white fabric-textured charging speaker. The speaker has a white base and a grey fabric top. The entire setup is on a wooden desk with a cowhide rug. In the background, there is a white mug and a blurred laptop screen. White curved lines are drawn around the text and the speaker to suggest sound or energy.

Wireless Charging

The new generation of chargers is wireless!

Give your charger with a plug a fixed place in your home or on your desk. Charging your mobile phone begins as soon as you place it on the base holder. You no longer need separate cables to charge your smartphone, which is very practical.

How does it work?

The energy of the charger is transformed and sent to a receiver on the back of the smartphone. The receiver in the smartphone then transforms this energy into electricity, charging the battery; electric energy is transformed into electromagnetic induction.

Suitable for:

Mobile devices that support Qi wireless charging: Android devices such as the Nexus 5, LG G-series and Samsung Galaxy and iPhones (from model 8). The chargers themselves are universal and device-independent.

Wheat Straw pens: this is how beautiful an ECO-friendly pen can be!

Pens made of a unique combination of materials: 50% PP plastic and 50% wheat straw. Wheat straw is the stalk that remains after the wheat grains have been harvested, and as such it is biodegradable. These stalks, which were traditionally viewed as waste, are processed into materials and ultimately into functional products. The result: an eco-friendly pen with a great look!
